Dear Sir/Madam,

COUNCIL TAX -APPLICATION FOR PERSON TO BE DISREGARDED FOR DISCOUNT PURPOSES - MEMBERS OF RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES

Please read the following notes before proceeding. The form must be completed by or on behalf of the person who is liable to pay Council Tax.

A person can only be disregarded where he/she is a member of a Religious Community whose principal occupation is prayer, contemplation, the relief of suffering or education.

To qualify for the discount disregard, an individual member must have no income (with the exception of an employer's pension) or capital of his/her own and must be dependent upon the community concerned for his/her material needs.

REMINDER- Single person discount can only be awarded where ONE person remains liable after others have been disregarded e.g. in a three adult household two have to qualify to be disregarded before a discount can be awarded.

Yours faithfully

W J Carpenter
Council Tax & NNDR Manager
