- Animal Welfare (Breeding of Dogs) (Wales) Regulations 2014
- Performing Animals (Regulation) Act 1925
- Pet Shops
- Riding Establishments Act 1964 & 1970

In order for the processing of personal data to be lawful under the General Data Protection Regulations 2016, a valid condition from Article 6 of the Regulations must be identified, which is outlined below:

- 1e. processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;

Data Protection legislation provides extra protection for certain classes of information called 'special personal data'. If any information falls within the definition of special personal data then an additional condition from Article 9 of the Regulations must be identified, as outlined below:

Data Protection Act 2018 – Schedule 1 / Part 2

- 6 (1) This condition is met if the processing—
 - (a) is necessary for a purpose listed in sub-paragraph (2), and
 - (b) is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.
- (2) Those purposes are—
 - (a) the exercise of a function conferred on a person by an enactment or rule of law;
 - (b) the exercise of a function of the Crown, a Minister of the Crown or a government department.

Data Protection legislation also provides extra protection for personal data in relation to criminal convictions and offences. If any personal data falls within this category then an additional condition from Article 10 of the Regulations must be identified.

The condition above is both an Article 9 and Article 10 condition for processing.

Where we are sharing your information with others outside of the public task requirement the legal basis for this sharing is outlined below:

- 1(f) processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child.
