Privacy Notice Name:	Caerphilly Cares service
Description of Privacy Notice:	This Privacy Notice will explain how the Caerphilly Cares service, which provides a single point of contact for support services within the CCB area, will use your personal data.

How we will use your information

Purpose and legal basis for using your information

Purpose of processing

It is impossible for everyone to know about all the services available to support people's wellbeing in Caerphilly borough area. The Caerphilly Cares service will provide a front door to services to provide a single point of contact for information, advice and assistance to ensure that residents' needs are met appropriately.

- If Information is required, we will not record any information about you on our systems.
- If Advice is required we will need to record your name, contact details and the nature of the advice provided for our records.
- If Assistance is required (including referral to another service, or community provision), with your agreement, we will collect relevant information about you in order to assess your needs in order to offer the most appropriate support. The support offered may be a CCBC service, a volunteer or it may be service offered by another organisation, but they will have the right expertise / skills to meet those needs identified.

After your work with the support service is complete, feedback such as how you engaged and how your needs were met will be shared back to the Caerphilly Cares service.

We may also use your information for monitoring and evaluation purposes.

If it is believed that a child or vulnerable adult may be at risk, we have a legal duty to investigate and the Wales Safeguarding Procedures will be followed, which may result in a formal investigation and assessment. This may involve several agencies such as the police, health and education.

Legal basis for processing

There is a public task obligation to process your information detailed below:

In order for the processing of personal data to be lawful under the General Data Protection Regulations 2016, a valid condition from Article 6 of the Regulations must be identified, which is outlined below:

(1)(e) - processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;

Data Protection legislation provides extra protection for certain classes of information called 'special category personal data', which includes information about your physical or mental health. If any information falls within the definition of special category personal data then an additional condition from Article 9 of the Regulations must be identified, as outlined below:

(2)(g) - processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject;

The above condition also needs an additional condition from the Data Protection Act 2018, Schedule 2

- 6 (1) This condition is met if the processing—
- (a) is necessary for a purpose listed in sub-paragraph (2), and
  - (b) is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.
- (2) Those purposes are—
- (a) the exercise of a function conferred on a person by an enactment or rule of law;
  - (b) the exercise of a function of the Crown, a Minister of the Crown or a government department.

The enactments or rules of law relevant to above condition is set out in:

Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015
The Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014
